This form may be completed by one of the partners on behalf of both.

If either of you will not be 18 by the proposed date of the wedding, the priest will need to know whether consent of parents or guardians has been obtained.

The Church's official rules do not permit the marriage in church of anyone who has been divorced from a husband or wife who is still alive. Anyone in this position should consult their parish priest.

When completing addresses, please include the name of the town, county, and postcode.

'What is your parish church', means the Church of England parish in which you live. If either of you lives in a different parish from that which the marriage is to take place, you have to arrange for the banns to be read there too and obtain a banns certificate.
